Meeting 23 July 2023,
At the home of Kate Cuthbertson in West Hobart
2pm

Edwina to step in and chair the AGM as Christine is an apology

Welcome to all in attendance,
Warm welcome to 3 new members, and a sincere thank you to Kate Cuthbertson for hosting today's meeting.
Apologies from Christine Lane, Mary Downie, Susie Forbes-Smith, Kathryn Terry, Marguerite Hunn, Michelle Williams,

Acknowledge minutes from last AGM.
The reading of the President report
Treasurer's report
Acknowledgment of the new art works recently purchased—which will be on show at the meeting.

Edwina steps out of the role of acting chair as the nominations are put forward and voted on.
Nominations are Edwina Morris President
Deb Rigby Secretary
Kerry Lane Treasurer
Wendy Tilley Art Monitor
Kate Cuthberson Executive member
Hannah Brown Executive member

New Art monitor to discuss the distribution of the collection for its next rotation.

Next exhibitions to consider, Ricky Maynard, Who will also be hosting a forum more details to follow and Stephanie Tabram.

A reminder of upcoming events as emailed by Wendy.
The September General Meeting is scheduled for the weekend 9th/10th September, hosted by Mary Machen and will be held in the north of the state.

Activities will include:

- Saturday 9th. Lunch and meeting at Mary's house at Bishopsbourne (near Longford), followed by a visit to Blenheim Farm Gallery.
- Sunday 10th. Guided tour and walk of Glover Country, Patterdale, Nile, hosted by Carol Westmore, including lunch. There will be a small charge for this.

- Members will need to organise their own accomodation for the Saturday night probably either in Launceston or Evendale.

- Mary has also suggested other activities including gallery visits and the Evendale market.
- This is shaping up to be a great fun weekend so please join us. Mary has kindly extended the invitation to include partners.
-
-

  New President to introduce Lynn Uptin, guest speaker.